

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION

1. What causes us to fear?
2. How can this account comfort us the next time we find ourselves in “deep water”?
3. Do we try to deal with fear ourselves, or do we let Jesus deal with it?
4. When did the disciples recognize Jesus?
5. What is so significant about touching the border of His garment?

SUMMARY:

Hardening of the heart is a deadly spiritual disease. The cares and worries of life as well as the pursuit of worldly gain and pleasures can create a condition in our heart that makes it impossible to recognize the leading of the Lord. Too many times we see the Lord as another spirit because of a preconceived idea we have in our minds. Our heart is the gateway to our soul. A soft, pliable, yielded heart opens the channel to give us access to the power of the Holy Spirit. A hardened heart throws the switch to human reasoning.

QUARTERLY THEME: Christ - King and Savior

TOPIC: THE MASTER REWARDS FAITH

INTRODUCTION:

We sometimes marvel at certain Christians' faith and we too would desire to have the same. Faith is put into our hearts by God Himself. We must ask Him for it, even as the father that said to Christ, "I believe, help thou my unbelief." (Mark 9:24)

Faith such as the mother mentioned in our text is God-given. The Spirit inspired this faith within her. She still believed, even after Jesus' words, "It is not meet to take the children's bread and to cast it to the dogs." What a testing!

Often our faith is tested by our Heavenly Father when He delays in answering our request or denies it altogether. Should we then lose faith? No indeed! That is just when our faith should be strengthened, and we believe "He knows what is best for us." Can we say with Job, "Though He slay me, yet will I trust Him?" That is God-given faith. May we pray that such faith is ours.

CENTRAL TRUTH: The presence of God drives out fear.

GOLDEN TEXT: GREAT IS THY FAITH; BE IT UNTO THEE EVEN AS THOU WILT.

Matthew 15:28

Merely believing in the power of Jesus is not always enough to attain the blessing. The woman of Canaan could have been discouraged in seeking the Lord's help for her daughter. He was a Jew, surrounded by Jews. She was a Gentile, shut out from the promises to Israel. But she beheld in Christ, a King, with close ties to God, Himself. "O Lord, Thou son of David." She felt that, with all His mercy toward Israel, He yet had mercy left over. If the full blessing was to have been denied her, yet she would plead, if only for a crumb. The Lord praised her faith and granted her request.

We have promises of the same power and mercy of Christ for our spiritual healing. "Ask and ye shall receive." "Him that cometh unto me, I will in no wise cast out." "And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do."

If we act upon our belief, it becomes faith.
